From the Pastor

Isaiah 41:10

10 So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

Ah, excitement is in the air as children prepare for school and teachers prepare to try and mold their impressionable minds. It just so happens that Aimee found my high school year book this week which took me down memory lane. As I reflected on the past, I was jolted back to reality by Aimee, who wanted to go over our schedule for the week. It was a reminder to focus on the now and the great things today holds. As nice as it is to reflect, if we hang on to the “way things use to be,” it is hard to grow. I understand that the church “use to be” full. There “use to be” more things going on and they sure don't make things like they once did. Here's the thing, God use to be great, God IS great and God will be great tomorrow. When you think about how your body “use to be,” think about if you really want to be 13 again. I know I don't. Even though I get tired and even though my body doesn't look or perform like it use to, I am not only more mentally mature and emotionally mature, but most importantly, I am more spiritually mature. May the Lord bless you and strengthen you and help you.

United Methodist Committee on Relief

UMCOR is the global humanitarian aid and development organization of the United Methodist Church.

Youth Day

On Sunday, August 25,

Youth Day
happened!

Lunch and lots of activities and games were played. Kids made friendship bracelets and slime and did sidewalk art. Ask Aimee how the slime making went. Fourteen youth participated and a big thanks goes out to Aimee, Sally, and Beth.

Ice Cream Making

What a turn out at Jim and Sally Taylor's when we made our Canal Days Ice Cream. We had fellowship and a great pitch in. We had 30 gallons of ice cream—yummy vanilla, chocolate, peach and strawberry. Those who helped and donated, you are awesome. Special thanks to the Taylors and to the Kems.

Won't you Consider?

The Nominations Committee is going to be reaching out to the congregation for much needed help. Committees need chairmen and members. Can't you pray on this and consider stepping up to help keep the momentum moving forward? CCFUMC needs

YOU.

Canal Days Workers Needed

On September 7 and 8, CCFUMC needs volunteers to sell Ice Cream. It is fun and won't take too much of your time. See Lynne.

Did you know?

The Lord is working at CCFUMC. If you feel this and are willing to share your story in The Believer, send an email to pandp.pentecost@comcast.net

CCFUMC Buddy Cards

We are trying to see if the Buddy Cards had any success before we make new ones. Please, let any member of Ad Council know your thoughts if you took a card. Thanks for the effort. We keep trying!!

Ministerial Association Ice Cream/Corn Hole Event

Over 140 people attended this event in the park. What a successful first endeavor. Ask Max and Aimee how they finished in the Corn Hole Tournament. Over $300 was raised for the Cambridge City Chapter of Brianna's Hope.

Have an Idea?

You have an idea for us to try? We appreciate youth, adult, Christian Ed, social suggestions, especially if you will take the initiative. Talk to Max or Bob!
